When's a Schedule Not a Schedulet ruary 28.

The International League's official chedule for 1914 was announced yesterday, giving April 21 as opening day and September 27 for closing. It is likely, however, that an entirely new programme may be necessitated, for C. H. Ebbets, Jr., president of the Newark club, wired from Pitusburg last night that his team prob-ably will play at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn. A comparison of schedules shows that there would be thirty conflicts with the Dodgers under the present arrangement of the International's dates.

Aumond fell Young slashed at him with his stick. Aumond got on his feet quickly and started in to punch Young, and that player landed a hard punch on Aumond's face. The two referees tried to separate the belligerents but were unable to do so, and the members of each team tried to help, but seemed to be doing some punching themselves. Then some of the rink attendants and spectators got on the ice and the two fighting players were sent to the bench for five minutes. Dr. White of the Hockey Club objected to the referee's sentence and he received two minutes to argue with himself. During the game Young was sentenced three times, Aumond twice, Ford twice and Paton and White are the latest balt held out to the former Red Sox leader. Stahl confirms the report that a big offer has been made by Messrs. Glimore and Weeghman and that he is giving it serious consideration.

"I haven't given a final answer yet," says Stahl. "I passed up baseball for good and all when I was let out in Boston last year, but now comes this offer from the Federals, and I can't say just yet what I shall do about it. One may see a way to do a lot of things for a lot of money."

PRINCETON HOCKEY MAN FLUNKS

Game Against Harvard.

PRINCETON, Feb. 17.—Tiger hockey stock took a sudden drop here to-night when it was learned definitely that R. B. Peacock, commonly known as Shorty, and who plays at point, would not be allowed to play in the deciding game with Harvard on Saturday night, as he has "flunked out" of college. This materially weakens the Princeton chances, as Peacock was the mainstay of the defence. It was rumored about the campus that Winn Peacock would play on the same ruling

Tiger Wrestlers Win Meet.

Princeton, Feb. 17.—The Princeton wrestlers won their opening meet here to-night from Lafayette by the score of 1415 to 415. There were three falls, three decisions and one bout was declared a draw.

AMERICAN ENTRIES IN RACES MUST BE FAST

Choice Foreign Opposition to Be Met Saturday in the Vanderbilt Cup.

LOCAL INTEREST IS KEEN

New Yorkers Represented as Drivers and Owners-Other Notes.

Local interest is keen in the Vanderbilt cup race at Santa Monica next Saturday, not alone because the race originated on Long Island and often has been run in this district but because there are several drivers of care that are well known here There are three cars entered by New Yorkers. One of them is the Merceder Ralph de Palma will drive which belongs to E. J. Schroeder, although it is entered in De Palma's name. This car, De Palma up, won the 1912 Vanderbilt. The other are the 12 hour record Sunbeam and the Isotta entered by William Ziegler Jr., of New York city. J. B. Marquis, a New York lad, will drive the British car. He was once Lewis Strang's mechanic Harry Grant, the winner of two Vander bilt cup races, pilots the Italian racer.

Spencer Wishart, another New York lad, will drive one Mercer and Edward Pullen and Barney Oldfield the two others. Earl Cooper, the leading driver of 1913, has one Stuts and Gil Anderson the other. Inasmuch as the Delage car with which Bablot won the Grand Prix race at Le Mans is another starter, it can be seen that the defence of American laurels against the fast foreigners is thrust upon the Mercer and Stuts cars, as they are apparently the speedlest of the American made machines

Besides the hine cars that have been named there are seven others entered—two Masons, a Flat, an Apperson, a Marmon, a Touraine and an Alco. Dave Lewis drives one of the Masons. This is a good entry list, the more so that there was listle time to express the details of the little time to arrange the details of the

WOOD ON STEEL FRAMES

Will Have Trial Both With and Without Centreboard and Race Best Way.

LONDON, Feb. 17 .- Shamrock IV., the up challenger building for Sir Thomas Lipton, is to have a centreboard. There have been rumors for some time about Charles Nicholson, the designer, making a radical departure in the model of the yacht and the probability of his putting in a centreboard. A despatch from Gos-port, where the yacht is being built, con-firms these rumors to-day and adds that port, where the yacht is being built, con-firms these rumors to-day and adds that the hull is not to be of steel or bronze, but the hull is not to be of steel or bronze, but of composite build—steel frames with wooden planking. This is another radical departure in the building of cup yachts. The last yacht of composite build to go after the cup was the Valkyrie III. which was defeated by the Vigilant in 1895. The Valkyries were of composite build, being planked with wood. The Genesta in 1885 was the first yacht of composite build to sail for the cup. The Galatea was of steel plating and the three Shamrocks were metal boats. Shamrocks were metal boats.

Nicholson has had much experience with hulls of composite build and he, with other designers, thinks that nothing is to be coach the Columbia baseball team for the coming season. The announcement was made by Harry Fisher, graduate manager of athletics, yesterday afternoon.

The new coaches will start work on Thursday afternoon, when a call for battery candidates will be issued. On Monday candidates for all positions will be issued. On Monday candidates for all positions will be issued as the day for just this called out. Lush was appointed head the first complete chassis had come through on February 16.
